Shannon Leisure Centre recognises the need to ensure the welfare and safety of all young people. In accordance with our child protection policy we will not permit photographs, video or other images of young people to be taken without the consent of the parents/carers and children. However on occasion we do take photographs as part of our art's n Crafts activities and promotional purposes. Shannon Leisure Centre will take steps to ensure these images are used solely for the purposes they are intended. If you become aware that these images are being used inappropriately, you should inform Shannon Leisure Centre immediately.

I consent to Shannon Leisure Centre photographing my child.
